

TEXAS ENTERPRISE ZONE

The Texas Enterprise Zone Program is an economic development tool for local communities to partner with the State of Texas to promote job creation and significant private investment that will assist economically distressed areas of the state. As of August 2013, the Enterprise Zone Program has accounted for 897 projects with 353,131 jobs (new and retained) and $59.5 billion in capital investment.

Approved projects are eligible to apply for state sales and use tax refunds on qualified expenditures. The level and amount of refund is related to the capital investment and jobs created at the qualified business site. An program overview is included below, for more details visit TexasWideOpenForBusiness.com/incentives-financing/tax/tez.php.
